Comrade chargé d'affaires ad interim,

American sources in Washington inform us that, during a meeting between President J. Carter and the South Korean Minister of Foreign Affairs, the latter reaffirmed the United States' commitment to maintain and preserve South Korea's security and ensured that US troop withdrawal from South Korea will be gradual and in cooperation with Seoul and Tokyo. J. Carter noted that, in this manner, the strategic and military balance in the Korean Peninsula will not be damaged.

The US reiterated its position of not accepting to discuss solutions to the Korean issue without the participation of envoys from Seoul.

Regarding the DPRK's message to initiate a dialogue with the US in view of signing a North Korean-American peace treaty, the US responded that it cannot accept a dialogue which excluded South Korea.

The above are for your information.

Signed: Ion Ciubotaru
